Nashville, TN Fusion Indian Wedding by Shanell Bledsoe Photography

July 31, 2017 | Posted by: Pricilla | Comments

Every element of Stephanie's royal wedding was infused with glam and charm. Today's lovely couple share a romantic love story but it is their fairytale wedding that truly has blown us away. Creative genius The Enchanted Florist bestowed the gorgeous venue of Scarritt Bennett Center - Wightman Chapel with floral arrangements that were an iteration of charm and charisma. Our hearts are just fluttering with Sumeeth's reaction as his lovely bride made her way down the petal covered aisle. After their vows, Sumeeth tied a stunning diamond necklace around Stephanie's neck in a traditional Hindu Thali ceremony. With This Ring Wedding Films captured all the live action and we cannot wait to share the film with you! Every single image of this heart-to-heart captured by Shanell Bledsoe Photography will leave you breathless with the full gallery brimming with romance.
